SEX AND RELATIONSHIPS EDUCATION POLICY

The Trust’s aims are to ensure that all children within our schools gain a first rate education, develop the skills necessary for the next stage in their lives and are equipped with the personal values and attributes that will make them successful in a fast changing world.

The Trust follows the statutory guidance provided by the Department for Education on Sex and Relationship Education. It believes that the Local Governing Board with the Headteacher of the individual school is best placed to decide on the curriculum and delivery of the optional sections, and that the sections relating to the National Curriculum that will be followed. This topic contributes to the spiritual, moral, social and cultural education in our schools.

Diversity (equality) impact assessment. This part of the curriculum should strengthen diversity and equality.
